Platform: Google Meet

Meeting Link: <https://meet.google.com/aib-cfjp-ktu>

- Objectives:

1. To raise awareness among teachers and students about the N-LIST services as a valuable gateway to E-resources.
2. To familiarize participants with the features and benefits of N-LIST in the context of academic and research needs.
3. To highlight the importance of accessing E-resources during the challenging period of the COVID-19 pandemic.

- Outcome of the Program:

The program successfully achieved its objectives, with active participation from teachers, students, and other attendees. The key outcomes include:

1. Increased Awareness: Participants gained a comprehensive understanding of N-LIST services, recognizing it as a crucial tool for accessing a wide range of electronic resources.

2. Enhanced Digital Literacy: The program contributed to improving the digital literacy of teachers and students, making them more proficient in utilizing online resources for academic and research purposes.

3. Positive Feedback: The program received positive feedback from participants, indicating a high level of satisfaction with the content and delivery. Attendees expressed gratitude for the informative session.

4. Interactive Q&A Session: The interactive session allowed participants to address queries directly to the speaker, facilitating a dynamic exchange of information.

5. Adaptation to COVID-19 Challenges: The program's success during the COVID-19 period showcased the adaptability of educational initiatives to the virtual environment.

In conclusion, the "Awareness of N-LIST Services" program effectively met its objectives, resulting in increased awareness, improved digital literacy, and positive feedback from participants. The success of the program highlights the importance of such initiatives in providing valuable resources and support to the academic community, especially during challenging times.
