TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This is to certify that Asansol Girls' college, Paschim Bardhaman, is a prestigious and most renowned education institution of this locality catering education among the women in the state for a period of more than 70 years. This institution also plays an outstanding role in the all-round development of the personality of the students and also associated with various social activities. Asansol Municipal Corporation regularly collects the garbage of the College for recycling from the College dustbin for the greater interest of the environment.
